Homily

Today is the 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time. In today's Gospel Jesus talks about true happiness, and among them poverty of spirit is the first one he discusses. Poverty in the scripture is defined as to seek God and rely on Him. It is not to show ourselves up which is conceited. The poor in this way is truly a way of a righteous person. It is because they rely on God so much that they do not do injustice, lie, and fraud. God finds the poor before Him and calls them into His Kingdom. They are truly happy people. Above all, Jesus shows us the acme of poverty and lets us follow Him.

Everyone in the world contends that he or she is right. Though they live wrongly, they contend that they do not commit any wrongdoings outwardly. And they all like the same people and state plausible reasons. They state truth and justice. They contend that they keep truth and justice. However, what we have to know is that the criteria for their contention must come from God. It means that only those who seek God, truth, and justice are based on their contention. "Seek the LORD, all you humble of the earth, who have observed his law; Seek justice, seek humility; perhaps you may be sheltered on the day of the LORD'S anger."

Seeking God is relying only in God and not others. It is not relying on the power and greed of the world. It is to know that the world and any person cannot show up or boast before God. It is to know that the wise and the bright in the world are truly worthless before God. It is to know that those who contend to be wise and bright are conceited and against God. "I will leave as a remnant in your midst a people humble and lowly, who shall take refuge in the name of the LORD; the remnant of Israel. They shall do no wrong and speak no lies; nor shall there be found in their mouths a deceitful tongue; They shall pasture and couch their flocks with none to disturb them."

Those who seek God truly are the poor and righteous. Those who can admit their weakness are truly righteous. On the contrary, those who contend to be wise are apt to do injustice and lie and good at fraud. These people do injustice even in the name of God. The wrath of God must come down upon them. "God chose the foolish of the world to shame the wise, and God chose the weak of the world to shame the strong, and God chose the lowly and despised of the world, those who count for nothing, to reduce to nothing those who are something, so that no human being might boast before God."

Truly happy people, truly righteous people, and truly holy people boast God but themselves. They see themselves in God. They obey the will of God totally before God. They know that they are nothing before God and are humble. Jesus shows us the way. Those who are with Jesus are the children of God and live in the wisdom of God. We must not boast about ourselves but about God. Those who strive for the glory of God to be revealed are truly poor and practice the righteousness of God justly. These poor people save the world from sin. They bring true peace to the world. "It is due to him that you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, as well as righteousness, sanctification, and redemption, so that, as it is written, 'Whoever boasts, should boast in the Lord.'"

Jesus says true happiness to the disciples. In the beginning, he talks about the poverty of spirit. It means this poverty is very important. We must be humble before God. We must follow the righteousness of God. Then only then we can cry, be mild, strive and thirst for justice, be generous, make clean our spirit, try for peace and endure persecution. It is because God will give us a great prize for us.

God prohibits any human to boast himself or herself before God. Those who boast themselves before God are doomed to do injustice, lie, and commit evil. The wrath of God will fall upon them. Their end must be disastrous. It is because their conceitedness earns God wrath.
