Homily

Today is the 7th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Today's readings and gospel talk about the love neighbors is to follow the holiness and perfection of God and that the love of people is to serve God because we humans are the temple of God. Those who love people are in fact serve God in true way.

God commands Moses that the community of the Israelites needs to be holy like God. And holy people are said not to hate brothers and neither to take revenge or hold grudges. Rather they try not to sin and treat people like themselves.

Human beings are created in the image of God so that people are truly holy. Respecting this holiness of human beings is serving God. Hence, the holiness of God is revealed through human beings. People can be holy by respecting others. Likewise, people can live holy lives by loving and helping each other. The life of human beings is for the love and to help each other. Therefore, revealing the holiness of God is the purpose of the life of human beings.

Paul says that such human beings are the temple of God, since God remains in human beings. That is to say that destroying human beings are destroying the temple of God. He says that God will condemn those who destroy human beings. Loving people who are the temple of God is serving God.

However loving people does not mean boasting about oneself. It means that people cannot take the place of God. God say that people who boast about themselves are likely deceive God as well themselves. The reason why people live holy life is God remains in them. Looking away from God and boasting about themselves are truly foolish. No one must boast of himself. It is because everything comes from God. If we boast, we must boast of God who is in us.

"The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.' So let no one boast about human beings, for everything belongs to you, Paul or Apollos or Cephas, or the world or life or death, or the present or the future: all belong to you, and you to Christ, and Christ to God."

Jesus says that because of God and because of the love of God, we must forgive and love even enemies. It is because God loves human beings who are His temple, despite who they are. Therefore, Jesus says that we must not stop loving people who are the temple of God, even before enemies and persecutors of us. We are told to try our best to love people. It needs to reach even the love of enemies.

Human beings are the temple of God. God will never lay aside those who destroy human beings. The love of people is to love God, so people cannot be a means of our greed. In the world, there is no other higher place than human beings can take. No riches, places, or powers can take any higher place than human beings.

God loves us human beings and made his only Son to be like us. And God lets his only Son Jesus teach people to take after and follow God. Jesus goes the way of the Cross out of the love of people and God. Jesus preserves the temple of God against enemies and devils. Jesus is the very temple of God.

When we attend Mass we offer our lives to God. And God transforms us into His body. God can remain in us. Likewise, we can become His temple. The love of God builds the temple of God in us. It enables God to be alive in us. When we can love people in this way, we can take after God and live holy and perfect lives. We should know that there is no more important and urgent work in every place than the love of people.
