Homily

Today is the 3rd Sunday of Easter. Two disciples of Jesus are going back to their home town Emmaus and meet risen Jesus on the way, amazing! Their eyes are opened to see Jesus when Jesus breaks bread at the table. They see Jesus as the true bread of life who cleanses our sins. They see Jesus, true Savior who saves us. Resurrection is an eye opening experience and we can truly serve God who is revealed through Jesus.

Acts of the Apostles, in today's reading Peter proclaims the truth about Jesus to the Jews and the people of Jerusalem on Pentecostal day. The disciples are no longer afraid of Jew or death and boldly proclaim that they killed Jesus by borrowing the hands of the lawless men. They witness the fact that Pilate sentenced Jesus to death and the Jewish leaders killed the Son of God, and he proclaims that Jesus is not buried in death, but rose by the power of God, and his reigns will be without end. "You killed, using lawless men to crucify him. But God raised him, releasing him from the throes of death because he couldn't be held by it."

Two disciples headed to Emmaus in discouragement because of Jesus' death, but meet Jesus. They had a big hope for Jesus but, he died by the power of the world. "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, however, our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him." They are so saddened by the fact that Jesus was killed by the chief priests and the leaders. Likewise, the world removes the Son of God in the past as well as present. Two disciples were discouraged by the power of the world and departed Jerusalem.

Three days after Jesus' death, on the road they meet risen Jesus. They were amazed, curious and dumbfounded about the vacant tomb of Jesus. Then Jesus reminded them about the sayings in the whole Scripture about the Savior, which was written by Moses and prophets. They come to realize that Christ has to suffer and die in order to enter the glory. They come to understand that though Christ has to undergo suffering and death by the world, in order to win over the world. They come to understand that Jesus is true Savior who leads us to God. "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and enter into his glory?"

They see the risen Jesus with their open eyes finally when Jesus break bread. Jesus is the bread of life. This bread saves us from sins. This bread is the word of God. Jesus hands over himself to us as bread in order for us to live truly as children of God. Through his death, Jesus lets us live new life. It is revealed that one who we have to follow for our salvation is Jesus who is nailed on the Cross, and not the world and its powers. The one who teaches us the true way of truth and life through death is Jesus. "And it happened that, while he was with them at a table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that, their eyes were opened and they recognized him."

If we want the life of salvation, if we want to go to God, we have to follow the very life and teachings of Jesus. We should know that Jesus is the One who renew us from our innermost self. We should know that those who took Jesus to death cannot bring us to true life. When we see Jesus truly, that is to say when Jesus who comes to his glory through death rises in us, then we can participate in the life of resurrection as well. We have to see that the One who we have to serve and follow in the worldly life is Jesus only and His way of Cross. We must have the risen Lord be with us, and live the life of salvation and blessings with the power of resurrection.

Fr. Namgil Kim
