Homily

Today is the 5th Sunday of Easter. Resurrection is the life of remaining in God. It is the life with God through Jesus. It is the life of doing the same thing with Christ, and to live as "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own." This life is made possible through Jesus who leads us from darkness into his splendid light. The life of resurrection is of the light and the truth.

Christ is the way, the truth, and the life. Following Christ's way is the life of resurrection. In today's reading of letter of Peter teaches us that Christ is the living stone, the precious stone chosen by God, and the cornerstone of the spiritual house of God. Although it was thrown out by the people, it is the living stone that will lead us to life. Therefore those who build houses on this stone shall never be ashamed, and build the house that is firm and strong in foundation. Those who build on this stone will truly gain the life of God.

It also says that for those who do not recognize this stone then the stone can be a stumbling block to them. It is never easy to realize that Jesus nailed on the Cross is God. It is not easy to profess Jesus as the Lord who died by the world. However, our salvation and our way, truth, and life are totally depends on him. Since his way is the way, the truth, and the life. If we want the right way, the truth, and the life, we must choose the way of the Cross. Though the whole world does not recognize him, for those who recognize him, the door to eternal life is open. He is the living stone who gives us life.

Jesus lessens the worries and reluctance of the disciples who do not recognize him yet and reveals that his way is the way to God. "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him." The way to God is the way to take up my cross. Jesus goes to God through the death on the Cross.

Our salvation lies in taking our crosses. Without crosses, we cannot go to God. If we want to be truly faithful to the words of God, we have to take up our crosses against the world. We want to escape from crosses. However, the more we want to escape, the more distant we are from God. The more we are faithful to the words of God, the easier we can take our crosses. Then, the life and the truth come to be with us.

The disciples select 7 helpers full of the Holy Spirit, to be faithful to the words of God. They have good fame and are full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom. When we try to be faithful to the words of God, we can come along with such good helpers. Taking up our crosses to faithfully follow the words of God is the faith we need to have.

Likewise, resurrection is to take up our crosses to be faithful to the words of God. Thereby, it is to stand up again back from the darkness and live the life of light. The life of being faithful to the words of God is the life of resurrection, the life of dwelling in God, the life of taking up my cross, and the life of salvation. They are "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own." We have to ask ardently to be a people of resurrection who can readily take up crosses and be faithful to the words of God.

Fr. Namgil Kim
