Homily

Today is the solemnity of the descent of the Holy Spirit. It is the birthday of the Church. The Church is the community that professes Jesus as the Lord by the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit enables us to work for the common good, overcome the fear of the world and live a true peace that comes from God. The Holy Spirit gives us the power to judge the world and forgive sins. Those who do not live in the Holy Spirit live in wickedness.

Jesus gives the Holy Spirit to his disciples. The risen Jesus appears to disciples who were afraid of the Jews and hid from them. Jesus showed them his wounds and lets them know that he is risen and the disciples rejoiced. And Jesus breathes on them a new breath which is the Holy Spirit. Jesus enables them not to fear the world, but to live with the power of Jesus' resurrection. Jesus lets them know that they have power over the world and its sins and the power of forgiveness.

"On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord."

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.' And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

The Acts of the Apostles describes the Pentecost, when disciples and people gather together, the Holy Spirit descends on each one of them. It says that the Holy Spirit looks like tongues of fire. When the Holy Spirit comes to us, we become the proclaimer of the words of God who is the truth. We can proclaim God the truth without being afraid of anyone and anything. The Holy Spirit comes down on the disciples and the people in this way. Despite the difference in tongues, everyone can become one in proclaiming God's words of truth. This is the Church.

"When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim."

The Holy Spirit enables us to profess that Jesus is the true Lord and let us know and profess that Jesus truly saves us and the only Savior. Who is the son of the poor carpenter Joseph, baptized by John the Baptist, gave food to the hungry, eat with the tax collectors and the sinners, and killed by scribes, Pharisees, elders, and chief priests. Without the Holy Spirit, we cannot know Jesus. Rather, we will nail Jesus on the Cross again but do not know what we do really. It is by the Holy Spirit that we can know that Jesus killed by Pilate is the Son of God. "No one can say,

'Jesus is Lord,' except by the Holy Spirit."

Today is the solemnity of the descent of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit calls us for communal goodness. The Holy Spirit wants everyone to be well. The Holy Spirit is the fount of peace. True peace is only possible when the Holy Spirit comes to us. And by the Holy Spirit, we can profess Jesus as the Lord. When we know Jesus as our true Lord, and follow Jesus's teachings, then true peace is present, and communal goodness is made possible.

This solemnity is the birthday of the Church. The Church we live in is the community where we profess Jesus as the Lord in the Holy Spirit, and proclaim the teachings of Jesus to the whole world. We should know that life with Jesus overcomes the sins of the world and saves us from them. We should remember that the Church is the community that proclaims the Lord with courage and without fear toward those who nailed Jesus on the Cross and live in sins.
